The Nice Weather Is Back and Spring Programming Cropping Up!

YAY!!! FOR OPENING DAY... APRIL 7TH

The negotiations are over. The warmer weather is back and so is Baseball! With 162 games and a full schedule, but shorter spring, professional baseball season will seem more normal than the last two seasons.

Living in a Covid era with safety protocols and shorten seasons, some things were needing to change with the game of baseball. League, owners, and players were finally able to work things out with some out-the-box ways to keep players healthy, fans coming, and games moving along.

A Viewer's Guide to the New Rules

- DOUBLEHEADERS GOING BACK TO TRADITIONAL 9 INNINGS, INSTEAD OF 7.
The League wanting to get back to "baseball tradition," 9 innings.
- STARTING PITCHER-DH RULE
Also referred to as the "Shohei Ohtani Rule," the American League MVP player who sparked an adjustment to the rules during the 2021 All-Star Game, where a starting pitcher could now also be a designated hitter in the game, even if he's pulled as a relief pitcher.

Baseball Fun Fact

April 15, 2022 marks the 75th Anniversary of Jackie Robinson debuting with the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Rule Adjustments for the 2022 Season

- EXPANDING FROM 26 to 28 PLAYERS THROUGH MAY 1ST
This adjustment would allow for a rotation of more players which allows "more arms in better shape" and lessening risk of injury due to the shortened Spring Training season.
- EXTRA INNING GHOST RUNNER RULE
Games that go into extra innings, a runner will begin on second base. This adjustment is thought to assist in shortening the length of the games.

Some baseball analysts suggest these new rules and adjustments will make the running for the pennant more interesting. We will see how the 2022 Season plays out!
