Smart Home Devices "Save The Day!" While You're Away

Has this ever happened to you? Sour milk. Ruined meat. The refrigerator door was accidentally left partially open. Or worse, a freezer or cooler quit working while you were away or overnight.

Not only is it a loss of an essential appliance, but a loss of its contents too! All the food you purchased the week prior. If it was a freezer, the loss of frozen meat could be hundreds of dollars.

Some of these things have recently happened to some of us at RC! That's why we'd like to share our research on some smart home devices that have flown under the radar which we feel you should know about.
